second game in the Grand Theft Auto series, released on July 31, 2003, for Microsoft Windows. Its plot follows the events of the gang war in Liberty City between the Leone and Maroni Families. The game is set in the fictional metropolitan city of Vice City, an analogue to Miami, Florida. Vice City uses a physics engine instead of the traditional user interface. Vice City for the PlayStation 2 and Nintendo GameCube was released on March 24, 2005. It is the final game in the series to be released for a console, the previous one being GTA III for the Nintendo 64 (released in 1998). It features various gameplay elements found in its predecessors, as well as re-created versions of activities from the 1960s, such as surfing, surfing, boat racing, and fireworks. It also features new activities, such as drinking in strip clubs and dancing in discotheques. Vice City for the PlayStation 2, PC, and Xbox 360 was released on November 11, 2008, and the PlayStation 3 and Wii versions were released on November 17, 2009. In the story, he joins his friend Letty Ortiz (Sanchez), a former stripper turned Miami cop, in order to regain control of the Miami Port. After his defeat in the war of the Maroni family, he obtains the contract to kill their leader Tommy Vercetti (Braga) and his lieutenant Angel (Majeski) along with Tommy's ex-wife Carmine Falcone (Harris).
